OUR LITTLE BOY.

A Story of Infatigable Suffering truly as told by his Parents.

Mr. Editor.—We feel it our duty to write you what the CUTICURA remedies have done for our little boy, who has been terribly afflicted with Salt Rheum, Scrofula, and Erysipelas ever since he was born, and nothing we could give him helped him until we tried CUTICURA, which, after using quite a quantity, began to help him and gradually cured him, until he is now as fair as any child. His body was completely covered, and his face and hands swelled very badly. We had no comfort with him; it was so much work to take care of him, and he suffered so. We began to treat him when he was 18 months old, giving him at first 10 drops of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT at a time, bathing in warm water and CUTICURA SOAP, and applying CUTICURA carefully to the entire body. He is now 3½ years old and is perfectly well. We have not written before, because we thought it might appear as if he had not, and we are very thankful.

MR. AND MRS. EVERETT STEPHENS.

An Oriental Reception.

Washington, 8.—The first diplomatic representative of the United States to Persia describes his reception by the Shah as most cordial and brilliant. He was taken to the palace in a landau furnished by his majesty and drawn by six horses each mounted by liveried postillions. Twenty royal trenchers or foot guards clad in scarlet and wearing plumed tiaras, escorted the carriage, together with a score of horsemen, accompanied by a Mohammedan and second master of ceremonies. He was ushered into a spacious and handsome hall, where the first ceremonies were undergone, and other gentlemen and dignitaries were gorgeously arrayed were within waiting. Here he took the seat of honor and was treated to tea and kullum or water and a pipe. Soon after the announcement was made to Benjamin that his majesty was in readiness to receive him, and thereupon he was conducted by the first master of ceremonies to the palace of the Shah. At this moment, says Benjamin, "a salute fired in honor of the United States, thundered over the city and on entering we ascended the magnificent stairs, the walls were decorated in part with paintings by European masters. From the staircase we entered the audience hall of vast proportions, and most impressive effect. His majesty stood at the upper end. Leaving my outposts at the door as prescribed by the treaty of Kourmahat, I made a low bow, and walked up to where the King was standing. Benjamin then addressed the King in French, and presented his letter of credentials. His majesty replied that it gave him great satisfaction to see an American legation at Teheran, and considered both governments could be further benefited by increasing the intercourse and diplomatic relations of the two people. After this ceremony his majesty expressed strong hopes that the United States, now that she had established a legation in Persia, should maintain one permanently at Teheran. At the conclusion of his audience with his majesty, Benjamin made a formal response also to his royal highness, Nain Sultan, who is minister of war, and one of the sons of the King, and thanked him for the military escort.

The Anti-Hebrew Riots.

London, 8.—Advises from St. Petersburg, where the demonstration against the Jews was made on the 23d and 24th instants, the Jews state that three columns of conscripts had arrived for the preservation of order. Eighteen of the 100 persons arrested for participating in the demonstrations, have already been placed on trial before the military tribunal. Many innocent persons who were wounded during the rioting, have since died. It transpired that no Jews were injured, as they escaped, having had timely warning of the attacks to be made upon them.

Iron and Steel Strikers.

Philadelphia, 8.—The Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers' convention resumed its deliberation this morning. The entire session was occupied with a number of important resolutions. At the afternoon session, President Jarrett will deliver an address which covers almost all the topics that are expected to come up for action during the convention. Jarrett says his reason for declining reelection is not owing to ill health, but strictly on account of private interest.

Nails.

Pittsburg, Pa., 8.—The Western Nail association met at noon to-day, and after a full interchange of views on the condition of trade, it was decided to order a general resumption of mills for the period of four weeks from next Monday, the 13th. The suspension of the last four weeks has resulted in greatly diminishing the stock. Trade is light, but the outlook for the fall is encouraging. The card rate remains unchanged.
